

Detox Cleansing Deodorant™

A nighttime deodorant designed to conveniently cleanse the underarm of aluminum, synthetic chemicals and petroleums, while you sleep. Formulated for both men and women, regular use of Detox Cleansing Deodorant™ can restore and maintain the underarm to its normal state.

Why is it important?

We believe the daily use of Detox Cleansing Deodorant™ has the ability to help protect you from the presence of metals. In the 21st century everyone is exposed to environmental contaminants. The absorption of these can result in an increased burden to the body. Aluminum is ubiquitous. It is present in our everyday lives. Aluminum, along with lead and mercury are found in everything from our drinking water, gasoline, jet fuel, medicines, antiperspirants, toothpaste, hair sprays and most importantly our food supply.

Why/How it works

The aluminum found in our underarm may interrupt the function of the sweat glands by plugging up your sweat ducts. To manage this, Detox Cleansing Deodorant™ can help reduce impurities to allow the normal release and cascading of the fluids. We use a combination of specialized ingredients* including coriander and kelp to help neutralize and cleanse the body. Herbalix Restoratives Preservatives system is a trademarked industry first. It tested 99.999% negative for the 5 major microorganisms at a FDA approved scientific research laboratory.

Uncompromised ingredients
